Distribution of additive functions on the set of shifted primes and on some other diophantinely smooth subsets of integers are investigated. Further topics which will be treated: sets of uniqueness for additive and multiplicative functions, additive and multiplicative functions with regularity conditions.