

A discrete type of universality theorem for  $L$ -functions attached to holomorphic normalized newforms is given. A similar discrete universality for the derivatives of those  $L$ -functions is also discussed, and an application to the distribution of zeros of derivatives of  $L$ -functions is presented. (A joint work with A. Laurincikas and J. Steuding.)